

GENERAL STRIKE MAY STOP WORK ON ARMY CAMPS

Employment of Non-Union Men Arouses Anger of Union Carpenters

GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS
CONFER WITH LEADERS

Prepared to Call Strike On All Cantonments to Enforce Demands

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, Aug. 10.—The threatened strike of carpenters employed in government work in this district
on cantonments, navy yard construction and aviation fields was called off today. An agreement was reached after a conference between government officials and labor union leaders under which it was agreed that union hours and wages will hereafter prevail on the work contracted for by the government.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, Aug. 10.—Labor leaders and representatives of the war and navy departments today resumed conferences begun yesterday in an effort to avert the strike of 2,500
carpenters employed on the construction of army and navy cantonment camps in New York City and vicinity. The strike called by delegates of the building trades has been held in abeyance pending the outcome of the conference. Although only 2500 men are directly affected by the strike order, the brotherhood of carpenters has a membership of almost 400,000, all of whom, it is said, might be drawn into a general walk out.

At today's conferences the government is being represented by Rear Admiral A. F. Harris, chief of yards and docks, and John Mor-fitt, of the department of labor. The government representatives, it is said, are seeking to adjust the differences between the firm of Henry Stearns, incorporated, and the brotherhood of carpenters over the employment by the firm of 150 non-union carpenters on the construction of the marine cantonment at Pelham Park. The union asserts that inasmuch as the government awarded the contract to the Stearns firm that it is responsible for the employment of the non-union men. Unless the contractor consents to employ only union men, or the government cancels the contract, the union threatens to enforce its strike order not only at Pelham Park, but at Brooklyn, Hempstead Plains, Long Island, and at Yaphank, Long Island,
where marine and army cantonments are under construction by contractors employing only union men. To enforce their demand that only union labor be employed it was said today that the carpenters were prepared to call out all their members working on government contracts within a radius of 400 miles of New York, and as a last step to bring their entire organization into the fight.

A strike by the carpenters in the New York district alone would not only delay construction work on the camps where New York's quota in the new national army is to be quartered, but also would seriously affect the transportation of troops to Europe.

The result of today's conferences was expected to hinge upon the attitude of the high officials of the brotherhood of carpenters in their reply to Samuel Compers, president of the American Federation of Labor, who yesterday protested that the proposed strike would be a violation of an agreement entered into between himself and Secretary
Baker providing for a conciliation committee to settle all labor disputes
on contracts for the war department.

April 1 more than 132,898 volunteers have been enlisted.

INSURANCE FOR ARMY PLANNED IN NEW MEASURE

Propose Protection For Death and Injury On Battlefield

ESTIMATED COST FOR TWO YEARS IS HALF BILLION

Dependents Provided For
and Education of Maimed Men is Arranged

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Aug. 10.—Authority to make effective the government's program of insuring the armed forces of the nation was sought by Congress today in bills introduced in both houses by Senator Simmons and Representative Alexander.

The proposed legislation was framed to follow plans already announced in general outline and would provide insurance, at minimum cost,
for American soldiers, sailors and marines, the insured men paying the premiums, family allowances to dependents of men in the nation's military or naval service; indemnifica-tion for disabilities and the re-education and rehabilitation at government expense of injured men.

A feature, not previously announced, would make it compulsory for officers and men to allot a minimum of $15 a month of their pay to dependent wives and children. The maximum compulsory allotment is half pay. These allotments would be supplemented by family allowances, to be made by the government of from $5 to $50 a month, according to the circumstances and number of dependents.

To encourage thrift and "better
to preserve equality and democracy
among the members of our own forces and between them and the allies," authority is sought to permit the war and navy departments to compel men who do not allot one-half their pay, to deposit so much of their half pay as is not allotted,
with the government at 4 per cent interest, compounded semi-annually.
Liberal indemnities for partial and total disability are included in the program, varying from $40 to $75 per month, minimum up to $200
a month for higher officers. Insurance would be written by the government on the lives of the men at a rate of approximately $8 per thousand in sums from $1,000 to $10,000, the premiums payable in installments.

The cost to the government as estimated by Secretary McAdoo, would approximate the following:

Family allowance—First year:
$141,000,000; second year, $190,
000,000.

Death indemnities—First year:
$3,700,000; second year, $22,000,
000.

Compensation for total disability
—First year, $5,250,000; second year, $35,000,000.

Compensation for partial disability—First year: $3,200,000; second year, $21,000,000.

Insurance against death and disability—First year: $23,000,000;
second year, $112,500,000.

Totals—First year: $176,150,
000; second year, $330,500,000.

The total for the two years is thus placed at $506,650,000, which Mr. McAdoo estimates at less than six per cent of the cost to the country of conducting the war.

In its general features the bill was approved by the advisory committee of insurance representatives summoned by Secretary McAdoo to Washington July 2.

"They opposed, however," Mr.
McAdoo advised the President in a letter made public with the introduction of the bills, "the grant of any government insurance over and above the compensation, on the ground that the then provisions made more liberal in ways suggested by them. They favored, over and above compensation, the payment by the government of $1,000 in each case of death during service, or with-

SON'S VISIT CHEERS MRS. DE SAULLES INQUEST IS HELD

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Mineola, N. Y., Aug. 10.—Mrs.
Bianca de Saulles, who suffered a nervous breakdown after she shot and killed her former husband, John Longer de Saulles, was said to be somewhat improved today following the visit of her 4-12-year-old son yesterday, over the custody of whom the shooting occurred.

The first day of the inquest,
which has been postponed, brought out the fact that de Saulles left an unsigned will. The will made no mention of any provision for his former wife, who had divorced him on the grounds of infidelity, but dealt principally with his wishes regarding the education of the child. It was said the will, which was written several months ago, was probably not signed because of the divorce proceedings which had not been decided at that time.

The inquest was adjourned when
Mrs. de Saulles' maid, Susanna Man-toni, failed to appear to give her testimony.

EIGHT NEWARK MEN GET COMMISSIONS AFTER THREE MONTHS IN OFFICERS' TRAINING CAMP

Newark men fared well when the commissions were announced today
at Camp Ft. Benjamin Harrison, where thousands of men from Ohio and West Virginia have been undergoing intensive training to convert them into officers for use in the present war crisis.

Two captains were awarded to Newark—Charles W. Montgomery,
Granville street, and Walter E. Tritipo, Linden avenue, being made captains of the infantry section of the officers' reserve corps.

John Sherwood Fleek, Hudson avenue, was named second lieutenant of the artillery section of the reserve corps, and second lieutenancies were awarded to Charles C. Starrett, West Church street; Leland C. Stevenson, West Locust street, who has served as private in Company G, Fourth O.
N. G., and Carl T. Myer, 10 North Morris street.

Others receiving commissions were: R. A. Jones, who was named second lieutenant in the regular army, and Fred Palmer, second lieutenant in the quartermasters' corps
of the national army.

Columbus secured a number of appointments and among the successful applicants were: George H.
Ewing and Hugh M. Ewing of Lancaster, grandsons of Mrs. Hugh Ewing, Granville street, and nephews
of Mrs. Charles W. Montgomery, whose husband was made captain.

The Ewing boys were made second lieutenants in the infantry section.
Many friends here of Harry L.
Rodgers of Cochocton, will be interested to learn of his appointment as second lieutenant in the infantry section.

Mayhew W. Shields of Columbus, who formerly resided in Newark, also received a commission.

Captain Charles Montgomery is the son of Wesley Montgomery, Penney avenue. He was educated in law and was associated with the most prominent attorneys of the city while practicing. He has been an active state and city leader in Republican politics.

Walter E. Tritipo is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Tritipo, Linden avenue. He was educated in the local schools and has held a traveling position.

Those receiving second lieutenancies were: Charles Starrett, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Starrett, and took a preparatory course of four years at Culver Military Academy, after which he was a student at Denison University; Leland
Stevenson, son of Mr. and Mrs. D.
W. Stevenson, saw service on the border during the recent Mexican trouble as private in Company G.
He also is a college man; Carl Myers, who was well-known as a vocalist in a number of amateur theatricals, was employed as carrier in the local postoffice.

R. A. Jones, who was named second lieutenant in the regular army, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Jones, east of the city. He was formerly a student at Kemper Military School in Boonville, Mo.

John S. Fleek, son of Mr. and Mrs.
Henry Fleek, was commissioned as second lieutenant in the artillery section of the officers' reserve corps,
has been associated with his father in the wholesale grocery business
here since his graduation last year from Harvard.

Fred Palmer, who was named second lieutenant in the officers' reserve corps of the national army, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Palmer, 565 Granville street. He had been working with his father who a contractor, but last year was a student at Ohio State University.

The following former Denison students also received commissions:
Arthur J. Beattie, Norwalk, second lieutenant; Gordon J. Burrer, Sunbury, second lieutenant; Wilfred C.
Woodward, Richmond, Ind., second lieutenant; George M. Roudeshush, Newtonville, captain; George C. Mc-Conaughy, Hillsboro, second lieutenant in field artillery.

George W. Fairchild, traveling salesman, who made his headquarters at the Sherwood hotel, received a commission at Ft. Benjamin Harrison as first lieutenant in the infantry section of the Officers' Reserve Corps.

These were given commissions in the infantry section, officers' reserve corps:

Captains—Edwin R. Sharp, Columbus; Frank A. Hunert, Columbus; Harry L. Haight, Columbus; Webb L. Vorse, Columbus; George
Armstrong, Columbus; Walter E.
Tritipo, Newark; Alva K. Overton,
Columbus; Charles W. Montgomery,
Newark; Marion R. McKinnie, Delaware; Thomas W. Norton, Mt. Vernon; Albert M. Buescher, Lancaster.

First Lieutenants—Ralph E. Wild-
ers, Columbus; Maurice J. Meyer,

Delaware; Frederick Stoneman, Columbus; Leo W. Bayles, Columbus; Myri M. Shamp, Zanesville; George W. Fairchild, Newark.

FOOD IN STORAGE SHOWS BIG INCREASE OVER A YEAR AGO

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Aug. 10.—Cold storage of food throughout the country on August 1 showed an increase over a year ago. Holdings of poultry increased 366 per cent. Meats and poultry holdings amount to more than 915,000,000 pounds.

The monthly report of the department of agriculture showing storage
holdings compared with a year ago,
announced today, shows:

Frozen beef, 112,442,629 pounds;
increase 62.3 percent.
Cured beef, 41,557,789 pounds;
increase 107.2 per cent.
Frozen lamb and mutton, 3,597,

crease 7 percent.
Frozen eggs, 14,872,286 cases; increase 10.9 percent.

TAFT STILL IMPROVING.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Clay Center, Kas., Aug. 10.—Physicians attending former President William H. Taft, who is ill at a local hotel, determined this morning to give him the first food he had eaten
since the attack of intestinal trouble early Tuesday morning. "Mr.
Taft is some better this morning," Dr. B. F. Morgan said. "He has no temperature and, although weak, is more cheerful and like himself than at any time since he became ill."

FRANCO-BRITISH DRIVE NETS GAIN NEAR WESTHOEK

Germans Driven From the Village and Ridge is Cleared of Enemy

ARTILLERY BOMBARDMENT
GROWING IN INTENSITY

Lens Still Threatened By Allied Drive and Fall
is Imminent

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, Aug. 10.—While the entente guns are still hammering
the German lines in Flanders with a fury apparently equal to that of the original bombardment, the infantry has not been entirely inactive. Today important gains by both the British and the French on a seven mile front
taking in Westhoek and Bixchoote are reported.

British troops last night finished the task of driving the Germans from the town of Westhoek and likewise cleared them from the lines
they still were clinging to on the ridge near the town. This forward movement gives Field Marshal Haig a far better grip on the section of the line east of Ypres.

The French on their front near Bixchoote advanced east and north of that place, adding to the gains
they had recently effected in this sector.

Silence from the British side regarding the artillery battle continues.
As in the period preceding the initial attack of the Flanders offensive the German reports are the principal reliance for news of the bombardment and these continue to emphasize its importance.

Not only in Belgium but along stretches of the Arras battle front
there are evidences of pronounced activity by the entente forces.

London today reports extensive raids by the British east of Monchy,
in the Arras area, and day by day reports come in of the notable work
by the Canadians before the coal
city of Lens.

It has seemed several times that the fall of Lens was imminent but evidently the hour has not been considered ripe to deliver the final stroke. Whether it is even yet a probability of the near future, the close grip which the Canadians now have secured upon its immediate outskirts is something that only the British high command can reveal.

BERLIN SAYS ATTACK FAILED.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Berlin, via London, Aug. 10.—
Deep masses of British troops last night attacked the German positions on the Arras front between the Monchy Peives Road and the Arras-Cambrai road. The storming waves, according to the official German statement, suffered severe losses and were repulsed after hand to hand fighting.

North of St. Quentin the Germans captured some lines of French trenches over a front of 1200 yards and took 150 men prisoners.

BIG PROBLEM FOUND BY RAILROADS IN MOVING NEW ARMY

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Aug. 10.—A national holiday may be declared on September 3 in celebration of the establishment of the draft levies, for the training cantonments. No step to this has been taken as yet, but officials at the provost marshal general's office regard it as a probable result of the simultaneous movement of the selected men from all over the country.

Conferences were in progress today with railway officials on details of the mobilization. Transportation lines faced the problem of collecting the first 230,000 men from 4,570
districts, providing them with sleeping car accommodations where necessary and providing for stops at points where soldiers can be fed
well and quickly.

Provost Marshal General Crowder laid additional stress today on his statement to local boards that it might become necessary to narrow the exceptions of married men or others with dependent relatives. The draft law did not exclude any such from military service but merely authorized the president to grant such discharges where circumstances
made it appear advisable.

The effect of General Crowder's caution to the local boards is to make possible a reopening of every case where a registered man has already been held discharged by reason of those dependent on him.

SEAMEN AND EMPLOYERS AGREE ON WAGE QUESTION

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Aug. 10.—American seamen and their employers have come to a full agreement on wages and working conditions during the war which government officials said today solves the problem of obtaining sufficient men to operate the great merchant fleet the country is building.

INSURANCE FOR ARMY IS PLANNED IN NEW MEASURE

In five years after discharge of service in lieu of insurance.

Children up to 18 years of age "or if incapable of pursuing a substantially gainful occupation because of mental or physical infirmities then without age limit" and wives of men and officers, would be given family allowances within the limits designated during the term of service of the men insured. The amounts would depend upon the size of the family, the allotment made by the husband or father out of his pay and other circumstances to be determined in each individual case. Other dependent relatives would be given allowances only in case voluntary allotments were made them out of the pay of the man insured.

The bill does not attempt to cover the methods to be pursued in re-educating and re-habilitating injured men. Two principles, however, are recognized: the man's obligation to avail himself of such opportunities as the government may provide under penalty of loss of compensation during "any period of unreasonable refusal" and a man's right to disability compensation regardless of his individual economic recuperation. The amount of indemnities paid in cases of partial disability, however, would vary from time to time, according to the altered circumstances of the man insured.

"Assume that a man were totally disabled by losing both legs and both arms in battle," Mr. McAdoo wrote the president by way of illustration. "Under the compensation provisions of this bill, if he were a private and unmarried he would receive $40 per month, and if, as most probable, he needed a nurse or attendant, up to $20 additional."

"If he had a widowed mother dependent on him for support, he would get another $10. If he subsequently married, his compensation would be increased at once by $15. If, later on, he had children, the compensation would be again increased $10 a month for each of the first two children, a possible maximum of $105 a month."

"In addition to this monthly payment he would be fitted with artificial limbs and have treatment. His compensation or pension would not be affected by any increased earnings. Furthermore, if he wanted to set up as a small storekeeper, under the compensation system he would be allowed to commute $20 a month of his compensation; this might give him $1,000 or more and still leave him protected to some extent."

When disability results in death, dependents would receive from $15 to $60 a month, according to the status of the dependents. This feature of the program is regardless of the insurance which the man or officer may take if he wishes paying the premium therefor himself.

All insurance of this character, the bill provides, would be "non-assignable, and free from the claims either of the insured or of the beneficiaries."

would be limited to wife, children and other specified kindred. A period of four months is provided for after the passage of the act within which insurance may be applied for and "for those who are totally disabled or die before they have had an opportunity to insure within the prescribed period of 120 days, insurance in the sum of $5,000 is deemed to have been applied for and granted."

FRENCH SOLDIER SENDS THANKS FOR NEW COMFORT BAG

A kindly little note of thanks for a comfort bag sent to France was received this week by Miss Gwendolyn Davies, of 481 Hudson avenue, from "somewhere in France." Miss Davies is a member of the Swastika club, which manufactured comfort bags which were sent to France. In one of the bags she placed a little French note, and a letter received from Leon Croissant, Sergeant Major of the 46th regiment infantry, Ambulance 325, Secteur 139 is in response to the note.

The letter is headed "Aux Armies, le 21 Mai 1917." Mademoiselle and is written in French. The letter follows: "It is with real pleasure that I received your very beautiful comfort bag, which contained various articles for which I am not able to compliment you too much on the good choice that you have shown. Believe me mademoiselle, in my best wishes and I beg you to accept my sincere thanks."

Enclosed was a small token, a card to which were fastened sprigs of lilacs of the valley.

NO STATE TROOPS AVAILABLE FOR LIMA STRIKE DUTY

(Associated Press Telegram)
Lima, O., Aug. 10.—Two men were in a critical condition today from bullet wounds and another was less seriously injured as a result of rioting here late yesterday in connection with the local street car strike. The city was quiet this morning.

The three men were shot in a clash between strike sympathizers and armed street railway guards. Those shot were strikers. There was a part of a crowd of 1,000 persons, some of whom attempted to board a car operated by strike-breakers.

Governor Cox, in answer to a request from the mayor for federal troops, has requested that no further attempts be made to run cars at night. Following last night's riot, the company took all cars from the streets. Governor Cox also has requested Major General Barry at Chicago to order federal troops in Lima to keep off the street, except in cases where they are under orders.

Governor Cox has no state troops at his disposal since the national guard was mustered into federal service, and so far as can be ascertained, he has not asked the federal authorities for assistance.

Under orders from Mayor Simpson, all saloons are closed. Six strikers and strike sympathizers are under arrest facing charges of attempting to burn a street car. During the riot, four riot calls were turned into the police and took police and firemen to the scene. The fire department extinguished a fire in one car. Three cars were so badly damaged that they could not be moved to the barns.

Crowds gathered in the public square later in the evening, but no further rioting occurred.

The men struck July 11 asking higher pay and better working conditions. The company has agreed to every demand except recognition of the union.

It became known today that following yesterday's rioting Mayor Simpson had appointed E. W. Hiner to be city safety director. The city's safety director recently was called to the colors with the Ohio National Guard and since that time the safety department has been without a head.

Safety Director Hiner today issued a statement declaring that saloons would remain closed until the strike trouble is over and that all persons participating in riots would be prosecuted to the limit.

STATE TAKES HAND.
Columbus, O., Aug. 10.—The state of Ohio today was ready to exert every influence to bring to an immediate end the street car strike at Lima.

State Mediator Miles, of the state industrial commission, is in Lima to get first-hand information, and was expected to make a report today to Fred C. Croxton, head of the labor division of the Ohio branch, Council of National Defense.

Following Miles' report, state officials are expected to formulate a definite policy for the state in pursuance.

As far as can be learned, Governor Cox has made no formal request for aid to the federal authorities. Pending Miles' report the only action taken so far by the governor has been to request the Lima street railway officials not to operate cars at night. This the company has agreed to do.

SHOP MEN GET INCREASE.
Chicago, Aug. 10.—An increase of from 11 to 15 per cent in wages of 18,000 employees of its shops was announced here today by the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad. The advance goes into effect September 1.

PACKERS SEEK TO CORNER WHOLE TOMATO CROP

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Aug. 10.—Evidence of a conspiracy among large packing interests to corner the entire tomato output of the Pacific coast has been discovered, it was said at the offices of the federal trade commission.

The commission's investigators in California reported today that three large canning concerns are involved—Armour & Co., Morris & Co., and Libby, McNeill & Libby. These companies, the declared, have attempted to purchase the entire California tomato crop from local canners and prices consequently are jumping.

WAR PROFITS AND INCOMES LOGICAL SOURCE OF REVENUE

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Aug. 10.—In opening senate debate on the $2,006,970,000 war tax bill today, Senator Simmons, chairman of the finance committee, declared the committee's purpose in revising the house bill was to raise sufficient federal revenues for extra war expenses without injustice to rich or poor, individual or corporation and without injuring sources from which the new and future taxes must come.

The bill, said Senator Simmons, proposes to raise a larger proportion of war revenues by direct taxation and less by bonds, distributing the war burden between the present and future generations. He pointed out that nearly $1,400,000,000 of the new war taxes are to be obtained from incomes and war profits alone with over $200,000,000 more from intoxicants.

"Before the war," continued Senator Simmons, "our total expenditures were between $700,000,000 and $800,000,000, exclusive of postal costs. It is evident that the expenditures during this fiscal year will reach something like ten billion dollars. These conditions suggest incomes and war profits as the chief and just source of revenue to defray the expenses of the war."

Apparently the house did not take this view. As the war profits for 1916 exceed thirty hundred millions of dollars, the house levy of $200,000,000 from war excess profits in the bill, estimated to raise $1,800,000,000, does not meet the manifest equities of the situation. Your committee thought that the equities of the situation required at least one-half sum proposed to be raised should be drawn from incomes and excess profits."

"KAISER WILSON" ON SUFFRAGE BANNER AT THE WHITE HOUSE

AGREEMENT BROKEN BY ICE DEALERS IS CLAIM OF CONSUMER

Last Monday night when the ice men appeared before city council they promised to sell to their consumers ice with out the necessity of laying in a supply of tickets before-hand. In other words 10 cent tickets were to be sold for cash, from the wagons.

The refusal of ice companies in Newark to accept anything but tickets at the wagons for ice is pronounced unreasonable by councilmen. The following incident was reported to Harvey Alexander yesterday by a housewife on Locust street. "I was out of change enough to buy a book of tickets and after the driver put the ice in my box I gave him a dime, he said he would have to ask his boss. Mr. Imhoff, who was on the outside, if he could accept the money. He returned in a few minutes and said he was very sorry but that he would have to have a ticket. Just then my daughter came home with some money and I bought some tickets."

At the next meeting of council steps will be taken to meet these tactics and drastic measures are promised by members of that body.

When approached in regard to this matter, City Solicitor Carl Norpell said: "My attention has been called to the fact that the ice men have broken their verbal promise to sell ice in 10-cent pieces and to sell tickets for cash, from the wagons. I have called their representatives for a meeting this afternoon to tell me what they intend to do in regard to this matter. I will immediately take action if their future policies do not conform with what I deem the right thing."

PICK COMMITTEES TO SELL TAGS FOR AMBULANCE CORPS

FOUR WASHINGTON TRIPS FOR BOYS AT STATE FAIR

Four trips to Washington will be offered in a stock judging contest at the state fair for any boy of Ohio under 20 years of age. The contest will be in charge of W. H. Palmer, college of agriculture, Columbus.

The boys will be required to judge a ring each of draft horses, beef cattle, dairy cattle, mutton, sheep and bacon and land hogs. The boy making the highest score in each of the four exhibit districts of the state will be declared the winner of the trip. The trips are being given by the state fair association.

Canning demonstrations will be conducted each day during the fair. Club leaders will be assisted by members of different canning clubs. While the instruction is intended primarily for members of the girls' canning clubs, anyone at the fair is invited to attend the demonstration.

DEPTH TO SEED WHEAT

Considerable difference of opinion exists among wheat growers as to the proper depth of drilling wheat. The Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station has conducted tests for five years comparing various depths of drilling and broadcasting. The yield of wheat in bushels per acre for wheat drilled one inch deep was 23.7 bushels; drilled two inches, 23.7 bushels per acre; sown broadcast, 24.9 bushels per acre.

During the last few years, cross drilling of wheat has been advocated but experiments do not show this to be profitable, since it requires twice as much work and the yields have been but little higher.

Recently, drills have been put on the market which sow the seed only four inches apart. The ordinary drill sows the wheat in rows from seven to eight inches apart. Experimental tests from the two types of drills have not shown any advantage in having a four-inch drill.

RATE TO SEED WHEAT

Eight pecks per acre has been the most profitable rate to seed wheat in Ohio. For the past 18 years, tests have been conducted by the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station with several varieties of wheat comparing various rates of seeding. The rates have varied from three to ten pecks per acre. Where five pecks to the acre were sown, the average yield per acre was 26.98 bushels; six pecks per acre, 28.12; seven pecks, 28.06 bushels; eight pecks, 26.96 bushels; nine pecks, 29.06 bushels; ten pecks, 29.06 bushels.

U. S. WILL INSURE ALL ITS FIGHTERS

Experts Devising Plan to Compensate For Injuries in War.

BENEFIT FOR DEPENDENTS

Scheme Will Make It a Tax on the Whole People, Says Insurance Man. The Treasury, War, Navy and Commerce Departments Are Working on It to Avoid Evils of Pension System.

Following a conference in Washington with Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo, a committee of prominent insurance men have drawn up a plan for pensions or compensation for casualties in the war, which will be submitted to congress.

The details are to be worked out in co-operation with the secretary of the treasury and officials of the war, navy and commerce departments, as well as the Council of National Defense. It was said they will conform as closely as possible to the principle of the workmen's compensation law.

To give some idea to soldiers, their families and the public of what the government, aided by the insurance men, was trying to work out, the head of one of the large companies, who deprecated any idea of self advertisement and therefore did not wish to be quoted by name, outlined the basis on which the experts are working.

"The government," he said, "is interested in putting something through in this matter that will be a happy solution of a difficult problem. It decided to appoint a committee of actuaries, with the agreement that the insurance companies would help the government. It is not life insurance that is sought. It is casualty insurance or, better still, it is compensatory insurance."

"That Uncle Sam is a great big employer was the idea finally agreed on by the insurance and casualty 'chemists' down in Washington, and the proposed insurance will in effect be a death benefit for the dependents of those who succumb in action."

To Avoid Evils of Old System

"The government, you see, is very eager to do something to avoid pensioning as it has formerly existed, to avoid the evils of the old pension system. What it wants to work out is compensatory insurance. Age has nothing to do with it. It isn't life insurance."

"Of course the companies might have gone into a pool or a bureau, and the government would be sending out checks after proof, but the great desire now is to simplify the whole matter."

"In short, it is proposed to put the pension plan on a workman's compensation basis. Of course it is up to congress, but I think it will go right through without a hitch. Mr. McAdoo stated what was wanted on behalf of the president, and the companies are willing to lend to the government their expert service, their statistics, etc. They have very recent statistics from Canada, where a great deal of insurance is carried."

"The government and the representatives are in co-operation to develop the simplest possible plan, such a one as is being carried out by big business through the workmen's compensation."

"The workmen's compensation law interposes between the workmen and the hazards of labor. By this plan it is desired to interpose between the soldier and the hazards of war. The plan when finally worked out may be varied; according to the condition of the family of a soldier. It might be a matter of compensation by installments."

Will Be a Tax on Whole People

"The principle of the workmen's compensation is being recognized by the United States in this war. The government says: 'We'll meet the necessary tax to compensate, and it will be a tax on the whole people. It will be just the same as if the problem arose in a bridge factory, a shoe factory or on a railroad. We'll tax ourselves. Here's a whole army going up against these hazards, and some must meet them.'"

"Such acceptance of this principle amounts to a social evolution. It would be a victory to have it accepted without debate, and with this compensation principle granted and accepted the ground is covered for this war. It will help volunteering, for the volunteers nearly all have dependents and the drafted have not. It simply shows that a great democracy does for itself in this emergency."

"Such a system would supplement a soldier's per diem. His dependents would get his compensatory damages. That is why the government wants the plan crystallized in advance. The plan will probably be uniform, without regard to previous occupation."

The Economy of Buying a Hudson Super-Six NOW

Market Conditions Make Present Supply and Prices Uncertain

This is not an announcement of an increase in price. I do not even know that a price increase is intended or will be necessary.

But I do know that there never was a time when it was so difficult to forecast either the price that must be paid for raw materials or to know how to plan for future market requirements.

The accompanying table shows how the rising prices of raw materials have affected the Hudson Super-Six. The prices of all automobiles and manufactured goods of practically every kind have been similarly affected.

Everything has increased in price during the past two years. There is no indication that top prices of raw materials have yet been reached.

Serious as that situation is, however, it is not as bad as are the newer conditions, which daily become more confusing.

When costs of all materials increase correspondingly prices adjust themselves. During the past two years we have seen prices mount higher and higher. The increases are approximately at the same ratio with all articles of merchandise. Therefore, the list price of an automobile is today relatively no higher than it was when it sold at from $200 to $300 less.

If these conditions continue it would not be difficult to meet them. The prices that must be paid in the future for materials out of which automobiles are built, and which thus affect the price at which those cars must be sold, are however, the least of our present obstacles.

An all powerful and selfish buyer is in the market. He demands what he wants and no one has the power to oppose him. He is War. He takes the products of the world and at his will deprives all others of the use of the materials they may need. Today he threatens to stop certain industries, for his need is not to be denied. Even War does not know from one day to another what he shall want next. So no one can definitely plan for the future.

He may want automobiles and if he does his wants must be supplied. He will require thousands of ambulances. This would affect the supply of pleasure cars. War does not stop to make repairs. He throws men, materials and money into the scrap heap with an extravagance impossible of imagination. The average life of a war ambulance on the battle front is 11 hours. So the difficulty now is in knowing how to plan for future requirements.

Materials for automobiles must be contracted for from twelve to eighteen months in advance of production. As things are now, the matter of price is of secondary importance. Will we have enough automobiles to meet requirements? I seriously doubt it. Surely people will continue to want cars. With the great prosperity that exists in this country, with the tremendous expenditures of the billions of dollars that are being put into circulation for war supplies, thousands of new buyers will want cars.

But the government may want all our pleasure cars. If it does where are the cars to come from except out of the stocks.

CONGRESS AND NEWS-PAPERS.

It seems probable that the war finance bill will impose a heavy tax on newspapers on a basis applied to no other industry. The discussion over this matter at Washington suggests that many Congressmen feel personal rancor at the newspaper press, the result no doubt of real or fancied injuries in their own experience.

The newspaper community may well ask itself what it has done to provoke this feeling of hostility. This does not mean that publishers and editors should fawn and cringe. But they are under the ordinary obligation to give fair treatment to the men who are serving the country in its law making bodies.

No doubt many of the faults of Congress, at which we all rail, are faults inherent in human nature and our national character. Electing a new set of Congressmen frequently does not help things a particle, and the same traditional tendencies reappear.

Yet when all this is said, it remains true that Congress is itself open to attack by persistence in policies contrary to common sense. Prominent among these are the pork barrel, the parceling out of favors to districts, the log rolling spirit, that leads men to vote for each other's schemes in order to get their own through. Arbitrary traditions like that called Senatorial Courtesy shield unfit men in office, and in time of war make it impossible to secure clear cut action.

The principle trouble is that too many Congressmen are anxious about their political future, too fearful of defeat at the polls. They shiver and shake before criticism, and imagine that if the newspapers could only be bottled up, they could get by. So there grows up among the narrower type of Congressmen, an animus against the newspaper press, manifestations of which have been seen in some of these taxation propositions. No man can advance his political fortunes by this petty spirit. The newspapers should give as good a fair fight as they should not be asked to pay taxes on principles not applied to other enterprises.

STRENGTH AND WEAKNESS.

The revealing mirror of war manifests a nation's strength and weakness with startling clarity. Brought face to face with a great emergency, hidden flaws make themselves evident, and virtue and power are found of which the peacetime were not conscious. So it has proved in American experience since that fateful day when we throw down the challenge of battle.

The readiness with which our people accepted the principle of conscription was a marvel to the European observers. Their statesmen came over here with the feeling that our participation in the struggle might be one sided and half hearted. They knew it took nearly two years to arouse Europe to the peril of her position, and to secure action to the principle of universal service. America thinks quickly. The mental processes for which England required two years were accomplished in two weeks here. It was a marvellous display of spirit of service, patriotism and alertness.

But when it came to adjusting our economic life to the situation, a different condition developed. Next to the raising of armies, the control of the food supply called for the most prompt and positive action. Yet here Congress dawdled and hesitated, responsive to the diverse public sentiment existing in the several sections of the country.

It then appeared that while our

The bright star Altair seen in the midday dome south and high up in the before midnight. Meteors in the evening.

THE COPPERHEADS.

(Philadelphia Record.)

We do not believe that there are 1,200,000 members of a Copperhead organization. The fact that one of its officers claims that number justifies the belief that there are not 600,000. There may be some other organizations of Copperheads. Perhaps in the entire country there are something over half a million, or one-half of 1 per cent. of the people in the United States.

Most of these are consciously and deliberately traitors. They are opposing the United States because it is at war with Germany. If we were at war with Great Britain they would be tumultuous in their patriotism. But we happen to be at war with the country from which they fled, and their loyalty is for the country they got away from and not for the country to which they came.

There is a small number of out-and-out pacifists to whom no principle is of any importance compared with the calamity of getting hurt. They would not have fought for independence. They would not have fought for the Union; the Union might go into a hundred pieces before they would have lifted a hand to defend it. They will not fight, or let any one else fight if they can help it, to defend the rights of Americans and to protect the world from Prussian domination.

Of course, there is no use in arguing with either of these classes. But the Government has got to watch them very closely and prosecute them remorselessly when they violate the law. We are accustomed to tolerating a good deal of disloyalty in discussions of the Government. But if they resist the draft, if they incite others to do so, if they attempt to prevent the military preparations and operations of the Government, they have committed treason, and the Government cannot afford to waste any time over them; they should be interned in any quantity and on short notice and the criminal courts should make examples of the more prominent among them.

Whatever there is of the peace movement is in the interest of the public enemy; the enemy of the United States and of all the world, and the action of the nation is not going to be controlled by a handful of Copperheads.

HE MEANS BUSINESS.

(Cleveland Plain Dealer.)

There can be no reasonable doubt of President Wilson's intention to make use of the authority given him by congress to regulate the price of food and of war material. The keen interest which the president evinced in the legislation while it was pending as well as his more recent activity is sufficient proof of his determination to put an end to profiteering.

Yet the profiteers show no sign of repentance and make no promise of reform. They are seemingly determined to continue their nefarious practices to the last minute, to squeeze the last possible dollar from the people and from the government. They have, of course, been immensely benefited by legislative delay. Their present hope is that the executive will be compelled to delay, that obstacles may be put in his path, that the inevitable may be postponed.

This policy of obduracy and arrogance may not in the long run, be beneficial to those who follow it. For those who are clearly squeezing the orange to the last drop there may be a painful reckoning. Federal seizure of manufacturing plants is more than hinted. For the food manipulators there may be an equally unpleasant shock.

No one except members of their coterie will feel any sympathy for the extortioners and gamblers if the penalty is more severe than has been expected.

RELIEF IN SIGHT.

(Cleveland Leader.)

Probably, by the end of this week, government control of food and fuel will begin to go into effect through compulsion of the necessary legislation and the president's approval of it. But the long-suffering public must not be long sanguine regarding immediate results.

A good start has already been made in the preparation to accomplish the results aimed at, but the task is an intricate and stupendous one and any system equal to the purpose requires much time and hard work for its development. Doubtless there will be some immediate effect due to the fact itself that government control has been made a hard and fast reality. Dealers and producers who have raised prices 50 per cent when the actual increase in their "overhead" charges has been only 20 per cent, may follow the example of Davy Crockett's coon and come down out of the tree before the shooting begins. But it will take weeks and probably months to put into operation fully the kind of control contemplated by the bill now going through its final stages in congress.

And it is idle to expect that prices will go back to where they were before the swift and steady rise that began before the war. Most of the conditions that operated then to send prices up are still in existence and not only can't be abolished arbitrarily but have been aggravated by the war. But a heavy percentage of the price increases from which the public is suffering is due to lack of co-operation, grossly inadequate means of distribution, and the rapacity of speculators. Dealers and producers who are trying to make the disturbed economic situation enrich them. This the government control can, and probably will, reach.

AIRPLANES IN WAR.

(Ohio State Journal.)

In a year there will be over 50,000 airplanes fighting on the side of the allies and at least half that number on the German side. Wherever one looks on the field of war he will see an airplane, and he will see them, too, in continuous battle. Really it looks as if most of the fighting will be done in the air and that up there the issue will be decided. Soon there will be great flights of airplanes over into Germany and perhaps a few voyages to Berlin to drop a few bombs on Potsdam to show the kaiser how it feels.

What is at the back of all this that has changed the horrid tug of war into a romance? Before us is an article which says:

"After all, it is the spirit that counts. Battles and wars are won not merely by billions of dollars and millions of men. Back of this must be what Napoleon used to call 'the impalpables,' meaning the indefinable qualities such as faith and courage and exaltation of purpose."

Literally true is it that the war is being fought with the "impalpables," which are "the indefinable qualities such as faith and courage and the exaltation of purpose." That sounds like the spirit at work for humanity and freedom. How different is the plane sailing through the blue and the great traction gun plowing its way through the mud, and how different will be the victories they win. Aviation is changing the spirit of war and its victories will be different from the old victories. It will not be so much the triumph of brute force as it will be of courage and genius. We are getting nearer the sword of the spirit.

Spirit of the Press

The Spirit of '17. Somewhere in Chicago a drafted lad unpacked his soul on a street corner and pedestrians overheard. He says to me, "Why do you talk like that? Why don't you talk like that?" So when father came up I says to him, "If I go, I go." That was typical. A philosopher looking on would call it fatalism, which it is. A magnificent fatalism, however. Our drafted boys understand. If they go, they go, eyes open, minds informed, yet without a whimper. Chicago Tribune.

Better Be Prepared.

There is a rush to deny the truth of the report that Gen. Pershing's officers came back from the front impressed with the strength of the German line and with the idea that it is impregnable. Nevertheless, it will do no harm if we overrate the magnitude of our task. If we are prepared for more than we are called upon to perform we shall acquire ourselves better than if we prepare for a lesser task than we face.—Hartford Post.

Court-Plaster and Tetanus.

The department of Justice, in issuing a warning to people against using court-plaster acquired from peddlers, was careful not to say that the tetanus germs found on some samples examined by government chemists had been placed there by German agents. The probabilities are against such a supposition. It is not surprising that tetanus germs have been found on pieces of court-plaster, dwelling in dust and on the surface of the soil. Our fathers, with their narrow range of experience and observation, supposed that lockjaw was contracted only through being injured with a rusty nail. But

TO THE BOYS WHO WERE DRAFTED

(By Hapburg Liebe.)

The writer of this little message to you, boys, has himself been an American soldier, and he is very proud of that fact. He knows army life, and he has seen red-hot fighting, and he knows the ways of officers.

I will put it like this: I will simply tell you what I would do if I were going into the army again. First, I would go into it with the rock-firm intention of whipping Germany. I would look at the matter just like that. Save that I would certainly not discount the importance of anybody else, I would believe, so far as was possible, that it was up to me to do my best, to give Germany the earth's pariah nation, the kicking that is going to make all nations safe in a world-democracy.

And the moment I was sworn into the service, I would resolve that, no matter whether it suited me or not, I would obey orders very strictly and to the letter. That is the magic phrase. It is the religion of the army; obey orders. During my time in the army, no man who lived up to that as his motto could go through with a term of enlistment without having a chance of being made a corporal, or a sergeant, or even a sergeant-major. There are few commissioned officers who will overlook the enlisted man who never disobeys an order, when promotion becomes necessary. And in this war, men from the ranks are going to win commissions, boys; remember that!

But every man of the company, or the troop, or the battery, or whatever it happens to be, cannot be advanced, you say, and you are right. But every man can be a soldier. How much there is bound up in those three little words! You'll know yourself after awhile. A real, dyed-in-the-wool American soldier, of course, is a gentleman, too. * * * However, there is bound to be a chance for you to win your chevrons. I've never yet seen the man who tried hard for promotion, if he tried honestly, who came out of it a private. In spite of their bluff military manners, officers are just like you under the skin; they flow much more than they are. They are quick to recognize, and they are most heartily glad to soldier and a golden quality of an enlisted man. Remember that, too!

Also, remember this: You are in the service to fight for your country, and not to make soldiering a trade; you are going across the Atlantic for the purpose of whipping Germany, and for no other reason. So long, boys, and good luck to you; and may the good God of our fathers bring you back to us!

IN BAD

since the bacillus has been isolated and studied, this delusion has vanished. Any one who has ever watched the care of a modern surgeon in sterilizing his instruments and guarding bandages and absorbing cotton, will recognize the folly of applying court-plaster to a wound without aseptic treatment. Physicians have often warned the public about court-plaster, but perhaps the German spy story will make the latest warning more effective.—St. Louis Globe Democrat.

Information for Dr. Michaelis.

Chancellor Michaelis just "cannot" get it through his head why the world will not make peace with Germany by "agreement" and "understanding." Well, doctor, the world happens to know just what an "agreement" with the present Government of Germany is worth, and as for an "understanding," it can have none with burglar.—Kansas City Times.

Milton's Busy Day.

Milton White, colored, pretty near monopolized the entire blotter at Second police station last night. Milton is in jail and the following charges are booked opposite his name along down the blotter: Bringing more than a quart of ardent spirits into Virginia; drunk and disorderly; stealing $4 in currency from John Henderson; assault and battery on the person of his wife, Kate; contempt of Court; carrying concealed weapons.—Richmond Times Dispatch.

She was crusty-eyed and poor Otto didn't have no paper to pretend to be persuseling, so he got up an' offered her his seat, which she took without even thanking him. Otto he stood there a-swaying back an' fro onto the end of a strap an' this here woman she says, "Why, you astandin' there for? Come here an' set onto my lap." Otto he got off red an' he stammered some two an' says he, "Thank you, ma'am, but I'd jest as soon stand," he says. "Gracious heaven!" cries the woman, "I wasn't a-speakin' to you," she says verry scornful, "but to my niece," which was a standin' behint Otto an' he hadn't said her.

Did You Know That America's civil war lasted four years, from April 12, 1861, to April 9, 1865? South Carolina was the first state to secede from the Union on December 20, 1860; ten others followed in the order below: Mississippi, Florida, Alabama, Georgia, Louisiana, Texas, Virginia, Arkansas, North Carolina, and Tennessee. The war of the rebellion was precipitated by an attack on Fort Sumter April 12, 1861. It resulted in a loss of nearly 500,000 lives, and fastened upon the United States a debt of nearly $2,000,000,000.

FRENCH DISCOVERY INCREASES STRENGTH—RAPIDLY RESTORES NERVOUS ENERGY—PUTS FLESH ON BONES OF THIN PEOPLE

Something over sixty years ago Pelouze, a French scientist, discovered a form of organic phosphorus which, when taken into the human system, was quickly converted into nerve tissue. Nearly half a century later, Robin, a distinguished French physician, began a scientific investigation of the use of this organic phosphorus and its effect upon the human system, with results that amazed the scientific and medical world. Since then Professor Robin's opinions have received almost universal approval; among the great clinicians and recognized authorities to support him may be mentioned Sir James Barr, London; L. H. Warner, A.M., Ph.D., M.D., formerly bacteriologist of St. Catherine's Hospital, New York, and such noted European investigators as Pasquale, Bulow, Delage, Bokay and Valerdi. Today physicians and hospitals everywhere recognize its merits by its use in ever-increasing quantities and it is an admitted fact that in the treatment of those ailments directly or indirectly due to depleted nervous vitality, such as neurasthenia, nervous weakness, premature old age, insomnia, lack of energy, fatigue, reduced vitality, general weakness, thinness, etc., it is unequalled. It is, therefore, a matter of more than ordinary interest to all such sufferers to learn that in its pure unadulterated state this organic nerve-building phosphorus is now obtainable from druggists everywhere in the form of 5-grain tablets of pure Nitro-Phosphate at a cost so low as to be within the reach of everyone. One of these tablets should be taken with each meal and the results in many instances are little short of marvellous. Dull eyes become bright, sleep is restored to the sleepless, the nerves regain their strength, thin people put on flesh and the whole system becomes charged with that strength, vitality and energy which makes life so truly worth while.

NOTE: Nitro-Phosphate, mentioned above, is a preparation of such proven merit that the manufacturers offer to return the money to any user who is not entirely satisfied with the results obtained. It is sold in this city by all first-class druggists.

The old Roley homestead (now owned and occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Meredith) located one mile south of Jacktown, was the scene last Sunday, August 5, of a very pleasant gathering of the well-known Roley family. A splendid dinner was served to fifty-six people, consisting almost wholly of the immediate family. The following were present:

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Meredith and daughters, Frances and Betty, and son, Robert, Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. George Handley, Thornville; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Roley, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Roley and sons, Harold and Thomas; Mr. and Mrs. George M. Roley, Newark; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. W. Allen, Mrs. Frank C. Gagliardi and daughter, Lou Ellen; Mr. and Mrs. G. Travy Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Roley C. Allen, Mrs. Alpharetta Fanner, Mrs. Frank Norris and daughters, Barbara, Margaret, Evelyn and Nadina, all of Columbus; Dr. and Mrs. John M. Handley and daughter, Sarah, and sons, George and John, Jr. of Woodworth, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Smith and daughters, Naomi, Elvira and Bright, and son, Frederick; Mr. Frank Brooks and daughter, Josephine; Mr. and Mrs. John M. Lake, Granville; Dr. and Mrs. George N. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Tawner, Hebron; Mrs. Margaret Orr, Mr. Frank Orr and Mr. Willis Orr, Thornville; Mr. Milton Handley, Miss Mary Handley and Mrs. Mary Stotter, Jacksonton, and Miss Grace Tatnam, Delaware.

Miss Ethel Jackson is entertaining with a porch party this afternoon out of compliment to Misses Ruey and Gladys Rhodes of Zanesville.

A very pleasant party was given Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Brooker, 86 Allen street, by their daughter, Faye, in honor of her cousin, Miss Faye Shade. The evening was spent with games and music and lunch was served. Those present were: Katherine, Evelyn, McLaughlin, Pauline, Marjory, Grace North, Martha Brooker, Madly Youngman of Wheeling, W. Va., Faye Shade of Ames, O., Homer Curtis, Ross Warner, Bud McKelvey, Clyde Stevens, John Guttridge, Mrs. Charles Fattler, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Page of Lebanon, Mo.

Miss Betty Jones of Granville, and Miss Olive Whitey of Lancaster, were out-of-town guests at the bridge tea given yesterday afternoon at the Scioto Country Club by Mrs. John Hughes Hissop, 1538 Menlo Place. Receiving the sixty guests in the company with the hostess were the four honor guests, all brides-elect, Misses Catharine Field, Cecily Rodgers, Eleanor Spahr and Anne Parsons.—Columbus State Journal

The members of Mrs. L. C. Sparks Sunday school class are spending the day at the First M. E. church, sewing for the benefit of the Red Cross.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Matilda Ingersoll of Marysville, and Rev. William E. Hayden of Granville. Rev. Mr. Hayden is a graduate of Denison University, and Mrs. Hayden has been teaching in the Union county schools. The marriage took place at the home of the bride's parents in Marysville.

Miss Ruth Lindorf entertained with a serial party for the benefit of the war relief fund of the A. F. F. W. at her home in Hudson avenue on Tuesday. Knitting was the work of the afternoon and Miss Lindorf's guests were Misses Martha Wright, Dorothy Beard, and Susan Walker.

MRS. ASTOR, LOOKING YOUNG THOUGH, IN HER FORTIES, AIDS RED CROSS

Mrs. Ava Willing Astor as she looks today.

Although Mrs. Ava Willing Astor, first wife of the late Col. J. J. Astor, is well along in her forties she might easily be taken for a woman of thirty. Her son Vincent, who has joined the navy, is twenty-six. She has been actively engaged in Red Cross work in England since the outbreak of the war.

PLANT FOR SECOND WAR CROPS

There is still time for planting seeds of a variety of vegetables which will mature before frost arrives. These can be grown in space vacated by others just harvested. They will mature at an excellent period for best success in storing them for winter use.

Early varieties of beets and carrots can be sown now with every assurance of being brought to maturity. Turnips for winter use can be sown during August. There is yet time for bush beans. Lettuce and radish seeds can be sown to fill up vacant spots in the garden not now producing.

Unbelievable America.
In the chapter of Hugo Munsterberg's unfinished autobiography, published in the Century under the title, "Twenty-five Years in America," the Harvard professor tells some of the amusing misconceptions of America current in Germany a quarter of a century ago. "The one, however, who brought me nearest to America was the historian Holst," wrote Professor Munsterberg. "In the lecture room his real life work was silenced. Who would care to study American history? But in the drawing room he did not talk of anything else; America and America again. Sometimes we had to listen to American stories through whole dinner parties. I do remember that at my first Freiburg party he reached his climax when he told the fascinated company that he had been in a hotel in New York where his room had a private bathroom in which he could have a hot bath at any hour of the night. The lady next to me relieved the dramatic tension by whispering, 'I do not believe it.' Well, no one believed much of what he heard concerning America."

Through Customer's Glasses.
"How much experience have you had behind the counter?" asked an electric shop manager of a young man who had just applied for a job as a retail clerk. "None," admitted the applicant, "but I've had a heap of experience as a customer."

The ability to put on the customer's glasses and see windows, cases and prices from the buying side of the counter is an asset that cannot be too highly valued. Every electric store salesman is also a buyer. He must purchase clothing, neckties and shoes. The electrical man who can remember how other salesmen and clerks showed him their merchandise in a way that invited his interest and encouraged him to buy and who can apply these methods in his own everyday selling is the man who will contribute to the building of a clientele of satisfied patrons for his store.—Electrical Merchandising.

A Legend of Agincourt

For many centuries we English have placed our selves upon the victory of Agincourt. But the French have an account of the affair not so much to our credit. It was arranged, according to this tale, by the two leaders that only the nobles on each side were to fight. King Henry V. then artfully enabled his whole army and hence got the best of the enemy. Shakespeare unwittingly gives a little countenance to the legend when he makes the king declare in his address to the soldiers, "Be ye men so vile, this day shall render your condition."—London Standard.

Contradictory.
"What did Blank say about me?" "That you owed him $10." "Why, the thing's scoundrel! Well, he can just waste for his money now. I won't pay him one cent till I get good and ready."—Boston Transcript.

Length of Wireless Waves.

In articles on wireless telegraphy such expressions as 200 meter wave lengths, 600 meter wave lengths, 15,000 meter wave lengths are constantly used. In reply to a correspondent who asks how the length of the waves is measured the Scientific American gives the following simple explanation: "The length of an electric wave is determined by a wave meter. The natural wave length of an aerial is four times its linear length, just as the wave length of a note of a closed organ pipe is four times the length of the pipe, and the wave length of the note of a tuning fork is four times the length of the box which is resonant with the note. However, other considerations make it difficult to measure the wave length by a rule, and the wave meter gives a more correct result than can be found by measuring the length of the wire."

Sparkling Eyes.

If you should watch very closely the eyes of a merry person when you see them sparkle you would probably notice that the eyelids move up and down more often under such conditions than ordinarily, and if you know what moving the eyelids up and down in front of the pupil of the eye does you will have your answer, says the Book of Wonders.

Every time the eyelid comes down it releases a little tear, which spreads over the eyeball and washes it clean and bright. It does this every time the eyelid comes down. Now, there is something about being merry which has the effect of making the eyelids dance up and down, and thus every time the lid comes down the ball of the eye is washed clean and bright and gives it the appearance of sparkling, as we say.

Our Boys and Girls

Fear in children arises from the necessity of dealing with the unknown. Children are afraid of the dark because there is no telling of what may and what may not be there. A child may be made familiar with the dark, as when someone in whom he has confidence stays with him and keeps his attention, until he is quite at ease among the shadows. The familiar never causes fear.

Caution on the other hand, arises from judgments based on knowledge. It is a known danger that leads to prudent and care. It steadies the muscles instead of making one tremble, because it is so largely a matter of thought and understanding, rather than a matter of feeling as is the case with fear. The more a child knows about the things in his little world the more likely he is to be fearless.

Every mother who has the welfare of young people at heart, ought to support and encourage the social center movement, which aims to throw open to the public for recreation, their own school buildings. The boys and girls should be set to form committees, to draw up programs and to control these social evenings.

So much of the harm that comes to girls follows from their never having been encouraged to develop their own initiative. At home and at school girls are told to do this and that, and are not encouraged to think things out for themselves. It is very noticeable that while many boys get into trouble through their spirit of adventure, more girls come to grief through the same trouble. They are not able to protect themselves as they are trained today.

Every Day Etiquette

"Is it proper for a young woman to visit a male friend who is seriously ill at his home, if either he or his mother extends the invitation?" asked Mabel.

"It is perfectly correct and proper," said her friend.

"When a maid opens the door, should you hand her your card, in asking for the lady you are calling on, or only give your name and leave your card when you are going?" inquired Henry.

"If you are a frequent caller, it is not necessary to give your card to the maid when she opens the door as she will know whom to announce to her mistress. Under other circumstances you should hand your card to her when she opens the door," said Uncle John.

AMUSEMENTS

AUDITORIUM.
To Honor and Obey.
William Fox's latest photoplay starring Gladys Brockwell, is well calculated to appeal to the followers of motion picture plays.
In the first place it is a Fox production, which, as you probably know, means that the story is a good one, that the cast has been drawn with a desire to get the best screen action, it means that no detail that money can get has been neglected. It means that the endeavor has been to send out the best, to please the exhibitor and have him come back clamoring for more.
In the second place, you have Gladys Brockwell as the star. Miss Brockwell gives to every role she portrays every ounce of energy and power she possesses, which is saying much. If you will look over the cast, you will see that she is surrounded by actors who are for yourself that William Fox thinks further than his star, and doesn't "just fill in."
This is the Auditorium feature for always full of most interesting events, in this issue has more war pictures.
Wednesday and Thursday Jack Pickford and Louis Luff will be seen in "What Money Can Buy," taken from George Broadhurst's famous play—two big stars—a Lasky production—you know them, its good.
Patricia, with Mrs. Vernon Castle, the 7th Episode said to be the most thrilling of all so far shown at the Auditorium, will be seen on next Wednesday.
The Auditorium orchestra, now a feature at the Auditorium, is the talk of the town. Prof. C. E. Cochran, the leader is working hard to make it one of the best that has so far played at this house. Wallace Jackson, the violinist, moves to Newark Saturday and will be heard every day. Earl Nutter, the drummer, who has been in the past few days, will soon be back on the job, and then "see music lovers" watch out. A specially arranged program for Sunday is promised, together with singing by new members of the orchestra.

At The Auditorium Today and Tomorrow In "To Honor and Obey"

today and tomorrow and should prove a big drawing card.

Charlie Chaplin.
Tomorrow Charlie Chaplin, will be an added feature and will be seen in the laughable two reel comedy "A Mirth of a Nation." This is said to be a photoplay of high voltage, humor and electrifying stunts. Pathe News will also be screened and this number is said to contain most interesting war news.

The Thoroughbred.
Frank Keenan, whose forceful characterization since his motion picture debut have won him millions of new followers, soon will be seen in a new type of role when he is presented by Thomas H. Ince on the Triangle programme as the star of a vivid drama of the south entitled "The Thoroughbred." This is a story of a chief of the pen of C. Gardner Sullivan and is expected to show Keenan's remarkable versatility more than has any of his previous vehicles.
"The Thoroughbred" acquires its title not from Keenan's characterization, but from a horse about which the plot of the story revolves. It tells the tale of a fine old southern gentleman and his daughter, whom "Miss Minnie," the thoroughbred, has helped to maintain in dignified comfort by her earnings on the track.
This Triangle feature, together with a two reel Keystone comedy will be the Auditorium feature Sunday. A singer will also be heard in several latest song hits.

Notes.
Next week's programs at the Auditorium are said to be good and some noted stars are coming to this popular theatre.
For Monday and Tuesday the Paramount feature will be the celebrated actor George Beban in "The Cook of Canton Camp," a story of a chef of a lumber camp who lived only that he might call the woman he loved his wife and to be the owner of a flapper's palace. The picture contains more than the usual blend of pathos and humor that has made this star famous.
On Monday the Hearst-Pathe News will be seen. This Film Newspaper.

FIGHTING FOR HAPPINESS

When you get into a frame of mind that makes life seem one tiresome duty after another, with no pleasure in it when all health seems to take all the joy out of life and you worry over things that are really not worth worrying about, then your nervous system is becoming exhausted and you are approaching neurasthenia.
Your happiness is worth fighting for and red blood is your best ally. It is a hopeless task to try to restore your health while your blood is deficient in quantity or quality.
To build up the blood there is one remedy that has been a household word for a generation, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. They long up the entire system, make the blood rich and red, strengthen the nerves, increase the appetite, put color in the cheeks and lips and drive away that untimely tired feeling.
The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., has published a free book on nervous disorders that contains a chapter on neurasthenia, in which the symptoms are fully described and the correct treatment given.
Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by your own druggist or will be sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50.

ALHAMBRA.
Tonight and Tomorrow.
Admirers of Viola Dana, the dainty little Metro star, will have an opportunity to see their favorite actress in an unusually attractive role in "Lady Barnacle," which will be shown at the Alhambra theatre tonight and tomorrow. As Lakshma, the high-caste Hindoo maiden who has run away from home, she attempts to disguise herself in boys' clothes. They are not the kind of boys' clothes that ordinarily make a girl attractive, being big, loose and baggy, but Miss Dana looks adorable in them just the same.

Sunday.
Nell Craig, Essanay star now appearing in "The Trufflers," purchased a parrot at a pet shop.
She paid a fancy price for the bird on the salesman's assurance that it would repeat every word it heard. Two weeks later, however, she caused Miss Craig to take the parrot back to the store.
"You assured me this parrot would repeat every word it heard," she exclaimed.
"Did," replied the salesman, but the bird is dead."

HARMONY.
Come to the picnic next Saturday, August 11, at 9 a. m. A regular harvest home gathering. Every body be sure and come and bring your dinner. Your friends and neighbors will be there.

PEACE!

Will It Be With Germany Powerless or Germany Free?

As the War enters its fourth year, the German Emperor proclaims that the thoughts of the German people "stand resolute in the determination to prosecute this righteous war of defense to a successful termination," and tells his soldiers "we are invincible. We shall be victorious. The Lord God will be with us." But while the thunder of British guns in Flanders and the shout of advancing German regiments in Russia seem to be the loud echoes of these confident assertions, representatives of both sides were at the same time contributing to a symposium of peace. Mr. Balfour declares that Germany must be "either powerless or free" before peace can come.

German peace-hints are prefaced with assertions that the armies in Belgium and Volhynia are fighting a purely defensive war. Chancellor Michaelis denies imputation of coldness toward the Reichstag declaration for a peace without conquest, while Count Czernin, Foreign Minister of Austria-Hungary, admits that his country is quite ready for an "honorable peace." While Austria's readiness for peace has long been evidenced by American editors, they suspect that Germany's outgivings and the firm grip of the military régime conceal an almost equal longing.

The leading article in this week's LITERARY DIGEST, (August 11th), is a review of all the peace talk from various quarters, arranged so that the reader instantly grasps its full import. Other articles in this number of the DIGEST sure to interest you, are:

THRASHING WHEAT IN ALBERTA

Canada plans to feed more people, owner in the British empire, possibly this year than ever before. An interesting sidelight on what is being done to put every available acre of land possible under the plow this year, is given in the following laconic statement from the land department for cultivating it. Circulars were sent to 7,000 American owners of wheat to a barrel of flour, this represents 800,000 barrels of flour. Each barrel can be transformed into 250 loaves of bread, which gives a grand total of two hundred million loaves of bread, or food enough for one million persons for one year.

With Nearly Twelve Year Experience In Furnishing Central Ohio Homes, Stewart Bros. & Alward Co.'s Great Store Daily Proves Its Supremacy In Dependable Merchandise, Wonderful Assortments, Splendid Values, Helpful Service

Looking Forward

The greatest benefit we have ever received has come from the advice of outsiders—those not financially interested in our business.

In our early years, one of America's representative retail merchants advised us to build our business on the policy of "obtaining a large volume of sales upon a small margin of profits, courteous treatment to customers, a square deal to employees, and to make every wrong right."

The big problem of today is to give proper service in every department every day. Conditions change with the times, and the plan of yesterday may be wrong today.

Our business is steadily increasing, but the demands of the public are increasing more rapidly. We try to get the best employees obtainable—the most of whom are striving every day to be 100 per cent efficient.

If you can help them or us with suggestions, or recommendations for the betterment of our service, it will be welcome.

Sale or No Sale---You Get More For Your Money At Stewart Bros. & Alward Always Buy Right Now During Our

GREAT ANNUAL SALE

The Buying Power of Your Dollar Is Wonderfully Increased

In furnishing the home—as in every other line of human endeavor—there is the ONE SUPREME OPPORTUNITY. Stewart Bros. & Alward Co.'s Great Annual Sale of Furniture and Home Furnishings is YOUR BIG OPPORTUNITY—a momentous time for you to GET MORE FOR YOUR MONEY or to furnish two rooms or the price of ONE.

IMPORTANT NOTICE!

The merchandise advertised in the Stewart Bros. & Alward Co. weekly announcements is not only offered for Saturday's selling, but will be found at the advertised prices every day during the week or until quantities of each article are exhausted. If you can't shop Saturday, come Monday or Tuesday, or later in the week—you'll find values just as enticing.

With very little effort, time and money you can now make the place you live in a REAL home which will satisfy the longings that every human heart knows. Furniture is ONE of the first and most important essentials. It's the only one that money will buy—and it doesn't take so much money just now, either—not while Stewart Bros. & Alward Co.'s Great Annual Sale is on.

Looking Backward

During the twelve years of our existence as an institution of Newark, we have seen many stores come and go, but the "HOUSE OF STEWART BROS. & ALWARD" is built upon a rock and more firmly established than ever.

The relation a store sustains to its patrons has everything to do with the enthusiastic support of the public.

One of the great assets which has come to us during the years is the large number of patrons who sustain more than the relation of customer to us—they are friends. These have seen us grow and have felt good over it, rightly considering our success their success, seeing they have contributed to that result in many ways.

Our good friends keep on increasing, and the people who have proven the reliability of our promises have brought in their friends to support our methods of doing business.

But thus far, we have only established a foundation upon which to build a great and an ENDURING business.

You can trade here with the assurance that this store will be here tomorrow, next year and for years to come to see that all promises will be fulfilled.

We are firmly established and we will be a better store just as fast as we find the way to do it.

Be Careful in Using Soap on Your Hair

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain mulled coconut oil, for it is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats the most expensive soaps or anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy, and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

WAR NO BAR TO CANADIAN DEVELOPMENT PLANS

LETTING WATER INTO SMALL TRACT IN IRRIGATION BLOCK

ON IRRIGATION CANAL.

Canada has commandeered all her forces—military, industrial and agricultural—in a brave effort to do her utmost to help win the war. Men are going out from all walks of life to take places on the fighting line. New hands must be trained to take up the work laid down. It means that those left behind must keep affairs as near normal as possible. They are doing this not only for the present day with its unusual demands, but are wisely looking forward to the after-war days and the problems that must be met and solved in re-assimilating Canada's overseas forces and in intelligently distributing the great influx of immigrants that will turn to Canada as a Land of Promise when it is possible for them to leave war-torn, almost hopelessly devastated Europe.

The men who are giving their best thought to the solution of this coming problem have come to the conclusion that a great portion of these people must go onto the land, must become farmers, must be dissuaded from settling in cities and forming a surplusage there, and Lord Shaughnessy, president of the Canadian Pacific railway, made the initial move when he announced that he would give 1,000 "read-made"

farms to veterans. Government heads, railway officials, local associations and public spirited individuals are working to prepare for the after-war stream of humanity.

Dry farming is successful in all the western provinces and many a farmer has won a fortune thereby, but the magic of irrigation brings greater wealth with less effort and irrigation is the theme that occupies the attention of everyone interested in the development of western Canada. There are government projects, great railway schemes, local association and individual plans for the bringing of precious water to every furrow of the most-out-of-the-way farm.

The Western Canada Irrigation association is one of the most active agents for the furthering of irrigation. With Hon. W. B. Macdougall, Saskatchewan's minister of agriculture, as its active president, assisted by experts and farmers, it is doing a work of incalculable good. It is to hold its eleventh annual convention August 1-3, at Maple Creek, Saskatchewan. Anyone, be he farmer or would-be farmer, American or Canadian, is welcome to attend the meetings or to appeal to the association for information at other times. A splendid program has been prepared, the speakers being men who are authorities on the subjects they will present, and discussions, open to all, will be in order. Not only do the farmers hear the subjects well treated from the expert's standpoint, but they may ask him to solve the personal problems each has encountered. Maple Creek, the scene of the coming convention, is an example of what irrigation does for a community.

In 1883 the Canadian Pacific came through and with it the first families of Maple Creek. These early settlers brought a few cattle that soon grew into mighty herds that roamed the unfenced prairies. Saskatchewan at that time was only a grazing country and it was not until 1905 that farming made headway. Simple irrigation schemes brought water from the Cypress Hills and soon prairie grasses were supplanted by fields of grain and the herds were moved on to allow the reapers plenty of room. Today there are 190 irrigation schemes in operation and the 1916 grain crop marketed at Maple Creek amounted to $2,500,000.

USE CAUTION WHEN ADDRESSING MAIL TO BOYS IN ARMY

Now girls, if you have a sweetheart, aboard a battleship, it behooves you to be careful how you address their letter for a undreds of them have been going astray, causing the postal authorities no end of trouble and the sweetheart no end of anxiety, fearing that he may be forgotten.

Most of the letters are lost on account of the lack of proper information on the part of the senders as to the correct way to address them. All mail to sailors at sea should be addressed first of all in a legible hand, next of importance is to know positively on which ship the man is stationed. A letter to John Smith, on board the U. S. S. South Carolina should be addressed as follows: "John Avery Smith, U. S. S. South Carolina, care postmaster New York City."

If you do not know to which ship a man has been assigned, write to the bureau of navigation, navy department, Washington, giving his name in full, home address, place of enlistment, and branch of service in which he enlisted. There are five separate branches in the navy: the regular navy; the marine corps; the national naval volunteers; the national naval reserve force and the naval reserve flying corps.

If relatives would use care to trace a man who has enlisted they should inquire of the bureau of navigation, giving age, height, weight, and description. The address to all men on board ships is "c/o, Postmaster, N. Y."

To add in the recreational work for soldiers, many of the current magazines contain an announcement that a penny stamp affixed to the magazine, sent to the postmaster, insures it being forwarded to some camp.

Mail to soldiers in France should bear the soldier's name, rank, company and regimental designation, followed only by the words "American Expeditionary Forces."

SLAVS DESTROY ALL MEMORIALS TO THE CZARS OF THE PAST

(Associated Press Correspondence) Petrograd, June 28.—Everything associated with Czarism is being ruthlessly abolished, even when the abolition destroys or profanes his associations. Names of places and squares taken from Romanoff rulers and grand dukes are giving place to names of revolutionary heroes and to abstract terms expressing the enthusiasm for freedom.

The changes are provoking strange controversies and amusing incidents. Elaborate names smacking of children are proposed. One is "Street of the Eternal Memory of Martyrs of the Revolution." In many towns are now displayed at street corners the names of Kalayeff, Gershun and other terrorists who assassinated despotic ministers and governors. In Moscow it has been proposed to change the "House of Boyard Romanoff," wherein the Romanoffs lived before their elevation to the throne, to "House of a Russian Boyard." Large towns called after emperors and empresses like Ekaterinburg in the Caucasus and Nikolayevsk in Siberia, find it difficult to change their names without causing confusion, so it is suggested that they be temporarily christened "Former Ekaterinburg" and "Former Nikolayevsk."

Destruction of historic monuments associated with the monarchy have gone so far that even the revolutionary council of workmen's and soldiers' deputies has protested.

FINE TEAM WORK THESE TWO DO

Nerv-Worth the Tonic and Nerv-Worth Laxative Tablets a Strong Combination.

The truth of this is self-evident to those who have taken the two Nerv-Worth products according to the printed directions, for results have exceeded all expectations.

While the liquid Nerv-Worth accomplishes wonders in regulating the bowels and liver there are users who need further help for these organs and the Nerv-Worth Tablets were recently formulated with specific reference to the assistance required. They are especially valuable in cleansing the bowels for those whose habits of constipation do not yield readily to the laxative properties of Nerv-Worth, the tonic, a cleansing which paves the way for the tonic's most far-reaching benefits. The name Nerv-Worth alone fixes the high status of these tablets. Every benefited Nerv-Worth user will have a groundwork of faith in the tablets when he knows they are a Nerv-Worth product. A bottle of Nerv-Worth and a box of Nerv-Worth Laxative Tablets make up a combination unequalled for overcoming ills of the nerves, stomach, bowels and liver.

PUBLIC SCHOOL NOTICE

Newark public schools open September 4th. All children coming six years of age before the first of next April may enter the opening week and will not be received at any other time during the school year.

The law requires all girls under 16 years of age and all boys under 15 years of age to attend school regardless of the grade passed. Employers of children during the vacation weeks should be prepared to release these children coming under the school law.

Parents are requested to have children ready to enter the first day. Starting late may make it harder for pupils for weeks after. The compulsory attendance laws will be enforced.

BACKWARD BOY SPRINGS SURPRISE ON HIS PARENTS

THEY HAD WORRIED ABOUT HIM
FOR A LONG TIME.

He was one of those ambitious boys the city is full of had the will and desire to work but not the strength, had never been over strong, always pale and anemic, it was up hill work for him to keep up his end either in play or at school.

His mother remarked to one of the neighbors how bright and well her little girl had been looking, she was so rosy cheeked and full of life and good spirits, where before she had been so pale, sluggish and backward about everything.

The girl's mother smiled and said, "Why, that is easy, that child gave her father and me loads of worry, we had tried everything and were about desperate, when the farmer who brings in our eggs, told us to try Phosphated Iron, he bet that would do the business, his oldest daughter was just the same, but now looked like a new child and they would never be without a box in the house."

The boy's mother took the tip and you should hear her praise Phosphated Iron, she says he is full of boyish good spirits and tricks, eats the way all boys should, no more restless nights, sleeps like a log, and now leads his class with ease, where before his work had been an effort and a drag.

It just seems as if the boy's whole system absorbed the iron, he was in such good of it and the Phosphates were just what his overworked little brain needed. It sure made a wonderful change.

Doctors all agree that four-fifths of all the trouble is due to the lack of iron and phosphorus. If one has them in their make up they are healthy and strong. Good for both old and young, for anyone run down, anemic or lack of red corpuscles. Get a package today and feel like your old self again.

SOCIALISTS' MEET AT STOCKHOLM IS DISRUPTING LABOR

(Associated Press Telegram)

London, Aug. 10.—An important conference of the labor party will be held at Westminster today to decide whether British labor shall be represented at the international Socialist congress at Stockholm in September. The conference will consist of delegates from all trades unions and other labor socialist representatives and is expected to have momentous consequences.

For days past there has been a sharp division among labor men with reference to going to Stockholm and the newspapers have been filled with rumors, predictions and interviews. The division on the one side of the conference seems as complete as ever and it is impossible to predict with even an approach to certainty whether those for the Stockholm conference or those against it prevail.

The main initiatory cause of difference was the conversion of Arthur Hollo, to the view, while he was in Petrograd, that it is desirable for British labor men to go to Stockholm and share in the deliberations of the international delegates. It has been stated in the past 24 hours that events in Russia since his departure have caused a change in Mr. Henderson's views and that he would recant at today's conference. There is no confirmation of this report which was both reaffirmed and denied in today's newspapers.

Mr. Henderson made no statement, but will be the first speaker at the conference when he is expected to make his position clear. In accordance with the newspapers the bulk of the labor members of parliament are strongly opposed to sending delegates to Stockholm and many of them do not conceal their hostility to the proposal. Among these are the labor ministers, Barnes and Roberts. The cleavage of opinion is not limited to the leaders but pervades the rank and file.

The miners, whose vote is regarded as likely to turn the decision one way or the other, are themselves divided, as are the railway men. The seamen union, on the other hand, appears solidly against, and their leaders declare that whatever the result of the conference may be the seamen will refuse to send delegates to meet the Germans anywhere. The opposition, however, is not based solely on the reluctance to meet enemy representatives. There is an influential section whose opposition is due to the conviction that the Stockholm conference cannot possibly be fruitful of anything useful or influence government since it is a waste of time and money to send delegates.

Notwithstanding that today's conference ostensibly is called to decide the question it seems doubtful if a decision will be reached or even if a vote is taken. It is expected that the real decision will be to wait the allied labor conference at the end of August although today's proceedings are likely to a great extent to decide the ultimate course to be adopted.

Now is the opportune time to buy the boys' suits. Our 25 per cent reduction means a great deal these times when wool and cotton are advancing in price almost every day. The Hub.

TANLAC FETCHING THEM TO ERMAN'S

Suffering Humanity Singles Out Great Master Medicine In Quest of Health.

Tanlac sentiment is growing at a rapid rate in Newark. Numbers of new faces are seen each day at Erman's drug store eagerly seeking the Master Medicine. Hundreds of nervous, dissipated men and women have learned of its tremendous value through their neighbors and friends. Every individual who has tried Tanlac vigorously declares that it gave perfect satisfaction. Harriot Fisher, 98 Western Ave., stated Thursday:

"I was a constant sufferer from stomach trouble before I used Tanlac. When I ate, my stomach bloated, ached and felt weak and sore. All medicine I took, except Tanlac, disagreed with me."

"Tanlac went right to the seat of my trouble, for the first dose gave me grand relief. I never bloated again nor had a bad after eating. Before I had taken the first bottle, I dared to eat food I hadn't touched for months. Tanlac isn't strong with drugs like most stomach remedies is the reason it helped me so quickly. Tanlac helped my nerves, too. I never did sleep so fine as I do now."

Tanlac, the new vegetable tonic, stomachic, appetizer, combatant and invigorant, is being specially introduced at Erman's Arcade drug store, where man and woman get the particulars to steadily growing crowds daily. Tanlac may also be procured at the Evans pharmacy, Warden hotel block, east side square, Newark.—Advertisement.

FRENCH AERIAL PATROLMAN GETS A SNAPSHOT OF THE SAHARA DESERT

Sahara desert from an airplane.

At the outbreak of the war France withdrew most of her soldiers from northern Africa, and substituted an aerial patrol, which has been most successful in maintaining order, despite the activities of German agents. This photo, showing a section of Sahara desert and a part of the village of Guemer, was taken by a French aerial patrolman. Almost all the houses, as can be seen, are fortified with high embattled walls.

Pesky Bed Bugs

A MILLION BED BUGS. Just think, a barrel of old-fashioned bug killer, 25c package of the new golden chemical P. D. Q. (Pesky Devil's Quicker), is enough to make a quart and enough to kill a million bed bugs. No matter how large they may be, where they come from, their age, color or sex, and the same time leaves a coating on their eggs and prevents hatching. CUT THIS OUT. This new chemical can be had at any first class drug store. A 2c package makes a quart of P. D. Q. and will go farther than a you, Owl Chemical Co. Two more...

LAND COMPANY TO OPEN NEW DISTRICT WEST OF 16TH ST.

The Cherry Valley Land Company incorporated by W. C. Collins, George Hermann, Oscar Scheidler, Wm. E. Miller, Fred C. Evans and John A. Chilcote, will plat and improve the Scheidler farm of about one hundred acres lying just west of Sixteenth street and on both sides of Cherry Valley road, which is to be improved with asphalt paving. About one-third of this tract of land is to be platted now and improved with all modern utilities.

Mr. Chilcote has now under construction on this tract a residence for his own home which will cost when completed about $12,000.00, and several other homes of the same character are to be built, probably this year.

The operations of the corporation will be under the management of Messrs. Evans and Chilcote, both of whom are well known to all Newark people. Both are men of practical experience in the development and improvement of real estate.

MOTORCYCLE TITLE IN TEN MILE EVENT AT PARK SUNDAY

The race program arranged for next Sunday, August 12, will be run as follows:

Five-mile open, seven horse-power; four entries.

Two-mile novelty race; six entries.

One-mile bicycle race; open to all who care to enter.

Five-mile side-car and passenger; three entries.

One-mile against time; six entries.

Twelve-mile open, Licking county championship; eight entries.

This is the fastest program ever arranged to be run on this track, as the machines that will be used are capable of running 75 miles per hour, and the records of half-mile tracks will be equalled, if not broken, it is believed. All the riders who have signed entry blanks, report their machines to be in the best of condition. Entries for the motorcycle race closed last night.

The race will start promptly at 1:45, to give the boys a chance to see the events before the ball game is called.

GOVERNOR DOES NOT

FAVOR EXTRA SESSION

TO FIX COAL PRICE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Columbus, O., Aug. 10.—Inferences from the governor's office yesterday that he does not now favor a special session of the legislature to cope with fuel and food problems was followed today by a statement that the "governor is reluctant to call a special session of the legislature in the face of apparent assured federal action in the coal price situation."

Both the statement of yesterday and today followed an opinion by Attorney General McGhee that the legislature has the power to regulate food and fuel prices.

Governor Cox has wired the federal trade commission at Washington urging that "the earliest action possible be taken in the matter of establishing the price of coal at the mines."

"Domestic consumers are anxious," says the statement from the chief executive's office this morning, "in view of a threatened shortage in the supply, to lay in their coal—and rightly so."

"The state has worked out a schedule of costs from the mine to the point of consumption but the first relief from present conditions must be the fixing of prices at the mine."

That the governor is not opposed to a special session of the legislature if it will offer the only means of speedy relief was conceded at the state house today. He hopes, however, to see a low at-the-mine price fixed by the government and believes that will be sufficient, as the cost to handle can well be cared for in behalf of the consumer through the already organized state agencies.

TOO MANY ARE ASKING

EXEMPTION IN OHIO

Washington, Aug. 10.—In a telegram to Governor Cox yesterday, Provost Marshal General Crowder says:

"Reports are to the effect that in some districts as high as 80 per cent of persons called before local boards are filing claims for discharge on the ground of dependent relatives. Such a percentage of claims indicates beyond question that advantage is being taken of the provision of the law and regulations which were intended to reduce to a minimum the misery at home normally attendant upon war."

"There is a moral certainty, in the extravagance on this percentage, that hundreds of unfounded claims are included in these totals."

"This state of affairs greatly increases the burden of local boards, for if so high a percentage of registrants claim exemption, only the uncompromising action of local boards can prevent a new regulation on the subject of dependency, which shall require discharges for dependency to a far more restricted class and to very necessitous and clearly-defined circumstances."

Unfortunate Attachment.
"I'm in an awful stew. Jim borrowed the belt to my full dress suit."
"Get another belt."
"Yes, but the pants were around the belt."—Froth.

Almost Equal to Divorce.
"Ole Bill sez 'e 'ardly never sees 'is Missus nah."
"Oh! 'Ow's that, then?"
"Cos she's all mornin' an' arternoon in a sugar cue, an' 'e's all evenin' in a beer cue.—Punch.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

In Memory of Clifford Blaine Everitt, Who Died July 26, 1917.

Death has again entered our chapter hall and called to the eternal home a dear brother, who has completed his faithful labor here, in ministering to the cry of the orphan, to the call of want and to the piteous wail of sorrow, and as a recompense has received the welcome plaudit "well done" from the Great Master.

And whereas, the loving Father has called our beloved and respected brother home, and he having been a true and faithful member of our mystic order, therefore be it

Resolved, that Highland Chapter, No. 350, Order of the Eastern Star of Fredonia, in testimony of its loss, be draped in mourning for 30 days, and that we tender to the family our sincere condolence in their deep affliction, and that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family.

C. OF C. COMMITTEE ON PURE WATER TO REPORT TONIGHT

The water purification committee of the membership council will meet in the Chamber of Commerce rooms at 7:30 o'clock tonight. It is to consider the report made by Engineer Harbour on the water system. The members of the committee are G. E. Pickup, W. H. Smith, Frank Espy, W. J. Fitzgibbon and Donald F. Stevens. Chairman Stiegel of the membership council also will be present.

The committee will make its report at a meeting of the membership council which will meet Thursday night, August 16, when the subject of improved sewerage also will be introduced. It is the intention of the membership council to continue itself to water-purification and sewerage until something is done, as these two improvements go hand in hand.

DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE FOR CITY AUDITOR

MY INTRODUCTION

Have always lived in the City of Newark and have been active in local politics. Have endeavored to treat every one right and with courtesy, and have been painstaking in my work.

I come before the voters of Newark City seeking your votes and support for City Auditor. If nominated, I will make the campaign with all the vigor I possess, and if elected, I will perform the duties of the office and pledge to the people courteous treatment and a full measure dollar's worth of service for each dollar expended in the office.

JAMES MCCARTHY

NOTICE TO DEMOCRATS

To Democratic Voters:

A report has been circulated that owing to the fact that I have made application for army service, that I was not seriously a candidate for City Solicitor. I desire to correct this erroneous report and say emphatically that I am seriously a candidate for City Solicitor, as I have no assurance that my application for army service will be accepted. I appeal to you as fair-minded and patriotic citizens, and ask whether you think making an application for army service should be a reason for voting against me. I can assure you that the application was made from purely patriotic motives. Please give this your kind consideration.

Very truly yours,
CHARLES W. MILLER.

Swallowing Glory.
Marjorie startled the family the other morning by exclaiming at the breakfast table, "I'm full of glory."
"What on earth do you mean," asked her mother.
"Why," explained Marjorie, "a sunbeam just got on my spoon and I swallowed it."—Boston Transcript.
